

Understanding Export Controls Compliance Metrics

In-person training sessions per year

This represents the number of in person training sessions conducted per year, including quarterly Research Administration Training, meetings with other admin units, and one-on-one training with faculty and administrators.

Individuals trained per year

This represents the sum of the number of individuals present at the above sessions.