Research Administration Trainees

This represents the annual total of individuals trained during the Research Administration Training Seminars: <http://www.researchintegrity.northwestern.edu/training-2/research-administration-training-seminar/>

Other Training

This represents the total number of individuals educated by ORI through various forums, such as RCR classes for graduate students and post docs, as well as regional and national presentations. Subtotals are given by audience for NU faculty/staff, grad students/postdocs, junior faculty, as well as national and international colleagues outside of Northwestern.
